Readings from the divisional charts

D9 — Navamsha (Spouse, dharma)

The Navamsha is the most important divisional chart. It shows marriage and the spouse, inner character, dharma and the real strength of each planet. A planet strong in the Navamsha gives reliable results even if it looks weak in the birth chart.

Lagna of this chart: Vrishabh

Navamsha lagna Vrishabh: You are affectionate, loyal and protective. Your seventh house is Vrishchik, ruled by Mangal, so partners tend to be intense, passionate and strong-willed. Possessiveness on either side is the thing to manage; trust and shared routines bring out the best in your married life.

Planet	Sign	House	Dignity	Condition in this chart
Ravi	Tula	6	Debilitated	weak
Chandra	Makar	9	Neutral sign	well placed
Mangal	Kanya	5	Enemy's sign	well placed
Budh	Vrishabh	1	Friend's sign	well placed
Guru	Vrishchik	7	Friend's sign	well placed
Shukra	Vrishabh	1	Own sign	strong
Shani	Kark	3	Enemy's sign	moderate
Rahu	Dhanu	8	Neutral sign	needs care
Ketu	Mithun	2	Neutral sign	moderate

The lord of this chart's lagna, Shukra, is in house 1 (health, personality and new beginnings), which supports the matters this chart describes.

Based on: Brihat Parashara Hora Shastra (attributed to Maharshi Parashara) — the sixteen divisional charts and their uses.

Life areas

Each area of life is judged by combining everything that bears on it: its houses and their lords, the planets placed in or looking at them, the natural significator (karaka), the Ashtakavarga points and the divisional chart that studies it. For every area you get a clear verdict with the reasons for and against it, what to expect, and the periods in which it is most likely to be active.

Marriage and partnership — Strong (6.2/10)

Marriage is judged from the seventh house (spouse and partnership), with the second (family life) and the twelfth (intimacy and bed comforts). Shukra is the significator of marriage (and Guru of the husband in a woman's chart). The Navamsha (D9) is essential here.

Verdict: Marriage and partnership are well supported: your chart favours a stable, caring relationship.

What supports it

- The lord of house 2, Chandra, sits in house 9 (fortune, father), a supportive house, linking these matters with that area of life.
- Guru is vargottama (same sign in D1 and D9), a sign of lasting strength.
- Guru looks at this house, a classical blessing for its matters.
- The lord of house 12, Shukra, sits in its own house, which strengthens everything this house stands for.
- Shukra is in its own sign, so it can deliver strongly.

What holds it back

- The lord of house 7, Guru, is placed in house 6 (competition, debts), a difficult house, so these matters meet delays, effort or detours.
- Ravi, a malefic, looks at this house and adds strain.
- Shani, a malefic, looks at this house and adds strain.
- Ketu, a malefic, looks at this house and adds strain.

What to expect

- The 7th house falls in Dhanu and its lord Guru sits in house 6. A partner is likely to be wise, kind and well-educated, with good values (shown by Guru).
- Shukra is in house 12 and Guru in house 6; the dashas of Shukra, Guru and the 7th lord are the most likely times for marriage and for important changes in the relationship.
- Shani influences the 7th house: marriage often comes a little later, with a mature or serious partner, and grows stronger with time.

In depth: Marriage and partnership

The main house for this area is house 7. It falls in Dhanu, and its lord Guru sits in house 6.

Dhanu on the seventh house suggests a cheerful, honest and freedom-loving partner, perhaps from a different background or place; shared values and travel help the bond.

The lord of your seventh house sits in the sixth house: a partner may be met through work or service, and the relationship asks for patience, as daily duties and small disagreements need careful handling.

SAMPLE

No planet sits in this house, so its results come mainly through its lord and through the planets that look at it.

Shukra in Vrishabh, its own sign, makes you affectionate, sensual and loyal; you value comfort, good food and lasting commitment.

The first strongly supported dasha periods after age 21 are: Guru–Shukra (09/07/2016 to 11/03/2019, age 21–23); Shani–Guru (14/02/2041 to 28/08/2043, age 45–48); Budh–Chandra (27/09/2050 to 27/02/2052, age 55–56).

Years to watch — Guru and Shani are the two slow planets that decide when life events actually happen. When both influence the house of an area together (the "double transit"), the matters of that area tend to come to the front. Your windows for the next 25 years:

- 22/11/2026 to 31/01/2027 (age 31): Guru in Simha and Shani in Meen together influence the house that shows this area, so these matters come to the front.
- 02/10/2030 to 19/02/2031 (age 35): Guru in Vrishchik and Shani in Vrishabh together influence the house that shows this area, so these matters come to the front.
- 19/06/2031 to 17/10/2031 (age 36): Guru in Vrishchik and Shani in Vrishabh together influence the house that shows this area, so these matters come to the front.
- 22/08/2032 to 31/10/2032 (age 37): Guru in Dhanu and Shani in Mithun together influence the house that shows this area, so these matters come to the front.
- 06/02/2043 to 05/08/2043 (age 47–48): Guru in Dhanu and Shani in Tula together influence the house that shows this area, and the supportive Shani – Guru period runs at the same time, so this is one of your stronger windows.
- 14/09/2043 to 13/12/2043 (age 48): Guru in Dhanu and Shani in Tula together influence the house that shows this area, so these matters come to the front.

Timing

- Running now: Shani – Shani (until 31/08/2027) directly touches this area, and its tone for it is favourable.
- Best windows ahead: Shani–Guru (14/02/2041 to 28/08/2043, age 45–48); Budh–Chandra (27/09/2050 to 27/02/2052, age 55–56).

Advice

- Marriage is well supported; give the relationship time and honest communication.
- The weakest link for this area is Guru. To strengthen it: keep Thursday as your regular day for good deeds, wear or favour the colour Yellow, and chant its mantra with devotion (Om Gurave Namah).

House	Sign	Lord (placed in)	Planets in house	SAV points

Marriage timing — period by period

Every dasha sub-period of the next 15 years is checked below. Dasha link shows how strongly the period's planets are connected with marriage (the 7th house and its lord, Shukra, Guru, the 2nd and 11th houses). Double transit marks months when Guru and Shani both touch your 7th house or its lord at the same time — the classical sign that an event promised by the dasha can happen. Periods with both are the most likely; a period without them can still bring marriage through effort and family circumstances. If you are already married, the same periods show when married life asks for attention or brings growth.

Most promising periods: Shani – Shukra (19/06/2031 – 19/08/2034); Shani – Guru (14/02/2041 – 28/08/2043).

Period	From – to	Age	Dasha link	Double transit	Likelihood

Shani – Rahu	10/04/2038 – 14/02/2041	42–45	Low	yes, 1 month(s)	Low
Shani – Guru	14/02/2041 – 28/08/2043	45–48	Moderate	yes, 6 month(s)	High

Your dasha periods

In the Vimshottari system, life is divided into periods (mahadashas) ruled by the nine planets in a fixed order. Each period is divided into sub-periods (antardashas). The results of a period depend on what the ruling planet stands for in your own chart: the houses it rules, the house it occupies and its strength.

Rahu mahadasha: 18/06/1995 to 27/08/2008

Rahu's period brings ambition, sudden changes, foreign connections and unconventional opportunities. It can raise you quickly. It is a time to stay ethical and clear-headed, and to avoid confusion, deception and risky shortcuts.

Rahu is a shadow planet that gives the results of the sign it occupies and of its lord, Shukra, and it sits in a supportive house (a kendra or trikona) in your chart, which generally gives good results — house 5, the house of children, education, intelligence and creativity. It is in a friendly sign, which supports its results.

Overall tone: favourable. This period mainly activates: Children (favourable), Travel and foreign connections (favourable).

Most supportive sub-periods: Shani (03/10/1995), Budh (09/08/1998). Sub-periods that ask for more care: Ravi (16/03/2005), Mangal (10/08/2007).

Rahu – Guru: 18/06/1995 to 03/10/1995

Rahu – Shani: 03/10/1995 to 09/08/1998

Rahu – Budh: 09/08/1998 to 26/02/2001

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Budh rules your houses 1 and 4 (health, personality and new beginnings; home, mother, property, vehicles and peace of mind), and it sits in a difficult house (6, 8 or 12), so care and patience are needed for the matters it governs — house 12, the house of expenses, foreign lands, spiritual life and sleep. It is in a friendly sign, which supports its results. Tone: favourable. Activates: Education and learning (favourable), Travel and foreign connections (favourable). The two lords sit in a 6/8 relation in your chart, so the themes of the main period and sub-period can pull against each other.

SAMPLE

Rahu – Ketu: 26/02/2001 to 16/03/2002

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Ketu is a shadow planet that gives the results of the sign it occupies and of its lord, Mangal, and it sits in an upachaya house (3, 6, 10 or 11), which gives results that improve with effort over time — house 11, the house of income, gains, friends and fulfilment of desires. It is in a friendly sign, which supports its results. Tone: mostly favourable. The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Rahu – Shukra: 16/03/2002 to 16/03/2005

Rahu – Ravi: 16/03/2005 to 08/02/2006

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Ravi rules your house 3 (courage, siblings, short travel and communication), and it sits in a supportive house (a kendra or trikona) in your chart, which generally gives good results — house 1, the house of health, personality and new beginnings. It is in a neutral sign. Tone: mixed. Activates: Travel and foreign connections (mixed). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Rahu – Chandra: 08/02/2006 to 10/08/2007

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Chandra rules your house 2 (money, family and speech), and it sits in a supportive house (a kendra or trikona) in your chart, which generally gives good results — house 9, the house of fortune, father, teachers, religion and long journeys. It is in a neutral sign. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Children (mostly favourable), Spiritual life (mostly favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Rahu – Mangal: 10/08/2007 to 27/08/2008

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Mangal rules your houses 6 and 11 (competition, debts, illness, service and enemies; income, gains, friends and fulfilment of desires), and it sits in an upachaya house (3, 6, 10 or 11), which gives results that improve with effort over time — house 3, the house of courage, siblings, short travel and communication. It is in a friendly sign, which supports its results. Tone: mixed. The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Guru mahadasha: 27/08/2008 to 27/08/2024

Guru's period is traditionally a time of growth, wisdom, children, teachers and religious or charitable activity. Opportunities for learning and expansion arise. It is a time to act with honesty and generosity, and to avoid over-confidence.

Guru rules your houses 7 and 10 (marriage, partnerships and public dealings; career, status and authority), and it sits in a difficult house (6, 8 or 12), so care and patience are needed for the matters it governs — house 6, the house of competition, debts, illness, service and enemies. It is in a friendly sign, which supports its results.

Overall tone: mixed. This period mainly activates: Career and profession (mixed), Marriage and partnership (mixed), Wealth and finances (mixed).

Most supportive sub-periods: Shani (15/10/2010), Budh (28/04/2013). Sub-periods that ask for more care: Ravi (11/03/2019), Mangal (28/04/2021).

Guru – Guru: 27/08/2008 to 15/10/2010

This sub-period of the main lord itself concentrates its results. Guru again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 7 and 10 and sits in house 6 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Career and profession (mixed), Marriage and partnership (mixed). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Guru – Shani: 15/10/2010 to 28/04/2013

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Shani again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 8 and 9 and sits in house 10 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Career and profession (favourable), Spiritual life (favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Guru – Budh: 28/04/2013 to 04/08/2015

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Budh again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 1 and 4 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Career and profession (mostly favourable), Marriage and partnership (mostly favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Guru – Ketu: 04/08/2015 to 09/07/2016

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Ketu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 11 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Career and profession (mixed), Marriage and partnership (mixed). The two lords sit in a 6/8 relation in your chart, so the themes of the main period and sub-period can pull against each other.

Guru – Shukra: 09/07/2016 to 11/03/2019

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Shukra again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 5 and 12 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Marriage and partnership (mostly favourable), Children (mostly favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Guru – Ravi: 11/03/2019 to 28/12/2019

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Ravi again brings the matters of its own house: it rules house 3 and sits in house 1 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Career and profession (mixed), Marriage and partnership (mixed). The two lords sit in a 6/8 relation in your chart, so the themes of the main period and sub-period can pull against each other.

SAMPLE

Guru – Chandra: 28/12/2019 to 28/04/2021

Guru – Mangal: 28/04/2021 to 04/04/2022

Guru – Rahu: 04/04/2022 to 27/08/2024

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Rahu is a shadow planet that gives the results of the sign it occupies and of its lord, Shukra, and it sits in a supportive house (a kendra or trikona) in your chart, which generally gives good results — house 5, the house of children, education, intelligence and creativity. It is in a friendly sign, which supports its results. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Children (mostly favourable), Career and profession (mostly favourable).

Shani mahadasha: 27/08/2024 to 28/08/2043 (running now)

Shani's period asks for patience, hard work and responsibility. Results come slowly but are lasting. It is a time to build discipline, serve others, look after the joints and avoid shortcuts.

Shani rules your houses 8 and 9 (sudden changes, research, inheritance and longevity; fortune, father, teachers, religion and long journeys), and it sits in a supportive house (a kendra or trikona) in your chart, which generally gives good results — house 10, the house of career, status and authority. It is in a neutral sign.

Overall tone: favourable. This period mainly activates: Spiritual life (favourable), Career and profession (favourable), Children (favourable).

Most supportive sub-periods: Shani (27/08/2024), Shukra (19/06/2031). Sub-periods that ask for more care: Ravi (19/08/2034), Mangal (01/03/2037).

Shani in the tenth house can bring a powerful career built on hard work and responsibility. Rise may be slow, but it is solid. Government, administration, engineering, mining, construction and management suit you. Classical texts consider Shani strong here. Integrity is essential, since Shani rewards honest work and punishes shortcuts.

The eighth lord in the tenth house can bring changes in career. Research, insurance, mining or investigation suit you.

The ninth lord in the tenth house forms a strong raja yoga (lords of the ninth and tenth). It brings status, success and honour.

Matters of house 10:

- Business and profession — what can happen: business expansion and a better name in the market. To keep it that way: Control costs, keep accounts clean and take expert advice before expanding.

SAMPLE

- Boss and people in authority — what can happen: support from bosses and people in authority. To keep it that way: Communicate clearly, deliver on time and avoid public arguments.
- Status and public image — what can happen: a rise in status and respect. To keep it that way: Keep your conduct above reproach and think twice before posting anything online.

Matters of house 8:

- Inheritance and joint money — what can happen: gains from inheritance, insurance or the spouse's family. To keep it that way: Keep wills and papers clear and take legal advice before any settlement.
- Research and hidden matters — what can happen: deep research, insight and success in studying hidden subjects. To keep it that way: Keep a regular routine and avoid extremes or risky practices.
- Health and safety — what can happen: recovery after a period of illness. To keep it that way: Do regular check-ups, avoid risky activities and drive and travel carefully. Consult a doctor early.

Matters of house 9:

- Charity and good deeds — what can happen: an opportunity to do meaningful charity that brings blessings. To keep it that way: Give quietly to genuine causes and never beyond your means.
- Luck and fortune — what can happen: luck supports you and your efforts bear fruit. To keep it that way: Keep working steadily, do not rely on luck alone and give to charity with gratitude.
- Father — what can happen: good news, support or blessings from your father or father-like figures. To keep it that way: Speak to him often, avoid old arguments and make sure his regular health check-ups are not skipped.

Shani – Shani: 27/08/2024 to 31/08/2027

This sub-period of the main lord itself concentrates its results. Shani again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 8 and 9 and sits in house 10 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Spiritual life (favourable), Career and profession (favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Shani in the tenth house can bring a powerful career built on hard work and responsibility. Rise may be slow, but it is solid. Government, administration, engineering, mining, construction and management suit you. Classical texts consider Shani strong here. Integrity is essential, since Shani rewards honest work and punishes shortcuts.

The eighth lord in the tenth house can bring changes in career. Research, insurance, mining or investigation suit you.

The ninth lord in the tenth house forms a strong raja yoga (lords of the ninth and tenth). It brings status, success and honour.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 2 from your lagna (money, family and speech) and Shani through house 10 (career, status and authority). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 2, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 10; results built by steady work there last longest. Shani passes through house 10, which this sub-period itself activates, so those matters arrive with weight, responsibility and lasting results.

Matters of house 10:

SAMPLE

- Official and government matters — what can happen: favour in official or government matters. To keep it that way: Keep documents complete and follow the rules strictly.
- Job and career growth — what can happen: growth, recognition and a step up at work. To keep it that way: Do quality work, keep improving your skills and do not leave a job in haste without another offer in hand.

Matters of house 8:

- Spouse's finances — what can happen: support from the spouse's resources. To keep it that way: Discuss money openly and keep joint accounts and responsibilities clear.
- Sudden changes — what can happen: unexpected help and positive turning points. To keep it that way: Keep a small emergency fund and a backup plan for important matters.

Shani – Budh: 31/08/2027 to 10/05/2030

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Budh again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 1 and 4 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Travel and foreign connections (favourable), Spiritual life (favourable).

Budh in the twelfth house turns the intellect toward spirituality, research, foreign dealings or work behind the scenes. Classical texts warn of expenses through miscommunication and advise caution with paperwork. Meditation calms an overactive mind. Foreign trade or writing in solitude can be rewarding.

The lagna lord in the twelfth house can bring life abroad, spiritual interests and expenses. You may work in foreign lands, hospitals or institutions. Care with health and spending is advised.

The fourth lord in the twelfth house can bring residence abroad or away from the birthplace. Spend wisely on property and home.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 5 from your lagna (children, education) and Shani through house 11 (income, gains). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 5, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 11; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 12:

- Spiritual growth — what can happen: inner peace, meditation and spiritual progress. To keep it that way: Meditate daily and stay in touch with family and friends.
- Hospitals and hidden worries — what can happen: recovery and release from old worries. To keep it that way: Go for a check-up early and consult a doctor; do not ignore small symptoms.

Matters of house 1:

- Image and reputation — what can happen: recognition and a positive image among people. To keep it that way: Keep your promises, speak politely and avoid showing off.
- Health and energy — what can happen: better energy, stamina and a quicker recovery. To keep it that way: Keep fixed times for sleep and meals, exercise daily and do regular check-ups. See a doctor early for any symptom instead of waiting.

Shani – Ketu: 10/05/2030 to 19/06/2031

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Ketu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 11 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Spiritual life (favourable).

Ketu in the eleventh house brings gains, often unexpected, and fulfilment of desires with a sense of detachment. Classical texts consider this a good placement. Friends may be few but sincere.

Matters of house 11:

- Elder brothers and sisters — what can happen: support and good advice from elder siblings. To keep it that way: Respect them and keep money matters separate from the relationship.
- Fulfilment of wishes — what can happen: long-pending wishes begin to be fulfilled. To keep it that way: Set realistic goals and move towards them in steps.

Shani – Shukra: 19/06/2031 to 19/08/2034

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Shukra again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 5 and 12 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Spiritual life (favourable), Children (favourable).

Shukra in the twelfth house is traditionally considered good for comforts, bed pleasures and spending on luxury, travel and the arts. It also gives compassion and interest in spiritual pleasures. Classical texts treat the twelfth as a house where Shukra does unusually well. Control spending and avoid secret indulgences.

The fifth lord in the twelfth house gives spiritual interests and may bring expenses on children or education, or study abroad.

The twelfth lord in its own house supports spiritual life, foreign settlement and charitable spending.

Matters of house 12:

- Losses through carelessness — what can happen: the end of an old burden. To keep it that way: Keep valuables safe, check bills and agreements, and do not trust blindly.
- Expenses — what can happen: money spent on comfort, family or good causes. To keep it that way: Keep a budget, avoid impulse buying and maintain a reserve fund.

Matters of house 5:

- Romance — what can happen: warmth and happiness in love. To keep it that way: Be honest, go slowly and do not commit in a hurry.
- Speculation and investments — what can happen: gains through sound judgement. To keep it that way: Avoid speculation and tips. Invest only after advice from a qualified financial adviser, and never with borrowed money.

Shani – Ravi: 19/08/2034 to 01/08/2035

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Ravi again brings the matters of its own house: it rules house 3 and sits in house 1 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Career and profession (mostly favourable), Health and vitality (mostly favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

SAMPLE

With the Ravi in the first house you have a strong sense of self, a dignified manner and the will to lead. People notice you, and you prefer to stand on your own feet. Confidence and a sense of honour are your strengths; pride, a sharp temper and impatience with criticism are the weaknesses to manage. Classical texts link this placement with good vitality but also with heat-related complaints, eye strain and occasional headaches. You do well in positions of responsibility, and support from government or seniors is likely when you act with integrity.

The third lord in the lagna gives courage, self-confidence and a talent for communication. You are enterprising and willing to take initiative.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 10 from your lagna (career, status and authority) and Shani through house 2 (money, family and speech). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 10, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 2; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 1:

- Confidence and personality — what can happen: more confidence, a stronger presence and people noticing you in a good way. To keep it that way: Pause before reacting, listen first and take big decisions only after a night of thought.
- New beginnings — what can happen: a good time to start something new or to change your approach. To keep it that way: Plan first, take advice, and begin small so that you can test before going big.

Matters of house 3:

- Younger brothers and sisters — what can happen: closeness and support from younger siblings. To keep it that way: Stay in touch, help without keeping accounts, and keep property or money matters clear between you.
- Short journeys — what can happen: useful and pleasant short journeys. To keep it that way: Plan ahead, keep documents ready and drive carefully.

Shani – Chandra: 01/08/2035 to 01/03/2037

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Chandra again brings the matters of its own house: it rules house 2 and sits in house 9 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Spiritual life (favourable), Wealth and finances (favourable).

The Chandra in the ninth house gives a religious, kind and fortunate disposition. You enjoy travel, pilgrimages and learning, and you often receive support from mother or motherly figures. Classical texts consider this a good placement for fortune and reputation. Your beliefs may evolve over life. Charity and respect for teachers strengthen your luck.

The second lord in the ninth house is fortunate for wealth. Money comes through luck, father, teachers or religious and educational work.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 12 from your lagna (expenses, foreign lands) and Shani through house 2 (money, family and speech). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 12, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 2; results built by steady work there last longest. Shani passes through house 2, which this sub-period itself activates, so those matters arrive with weight, responsibility and lasting results.

Matters of house 9:

- Teachers and mentors — what can happen: guidance from a good teacher or mentor. To keep it that way: Respect your teachers, seek their advice before big decisions and learn with humility.

- Religion and faith — what can happen: peace through prayer, a pilgrimage or a spiritual lead. To keep it that way: Keep a simple daily practice and be careful of anyone who asks for money in return for blessings.

Matters of house 2:

- Family life — what can happen: harmony, togetherness and support at home. To keep it that way: Eat together when possible, avoid taunts and settle money matters between relatives in writing.
- Speech and communication — what can happen: words that carry weight and people who listen to you. To keep it that way: Think before speaking, avoid arguments, and put important things in writing.

Shani – Mangal: 01/03/2037 to 10/04/2038

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Mangal again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 6 and 11 and sits in house 3 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Career and profession (favourable), Spiritual life (favourable). The two lords sit in a 6/8 relation in your chart, so the themes of the main period and sub-period can pull against each other.

Mangal in the third house is one of its best positions. It gives exceptional courage, initiative and the ability to overcome competitors. You can do well in sports, the forces, technical work, sales or any field needing bold effort. Classical texts praise this placement for valour and success through one's own effort. Relations with siblings may be competitive but protective.

The sixth lord in the third house gives courage to defeat opponents. This is generally a good placement for victory.

The eleventh lord in the third house brings gains through effort, siblings, communication and travel.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 2 from your lagna (money, family and speech) and Shani through house 3 (courage, siblings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 2, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 3; results built by steady work there last longest. Shani passes through house 3, which this sub-period itself activates, so those matters arrive with weight, responsibility and lasting results.

Matters of house 3:

- Neighbours and local contacts — what can happen: good support from neighbours and people nearby. To keep it that way: Be courteous, avoid gossip and settle small matters quickly.
- Courage and effort — what can happen: extra courage and the energy to finish what you start. To keep it that way: Set small daily targets and finish one task before you begin the next.

Matters of house 6:

- Legal disputes — what can happen: a favourable outcome in a dispute. To keep it that way: Prefer a settlement, keep all records, and consult a qualified lawyer.
- Employees and helpers — what can happen: loyal and useful helpers or staff. To keep it that way: Give clear instructions and keep dealings fair and in writing.

Shani – Rahu: 10/04/2038 to 14/02/2041

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Rahu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 5 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Children (favourable), Spiritual life (favourable). The two lords sit in a 6/8 relation in your chart, so the themes of the main period and sub-period can pull against each other.

Rahu in the fifth house gives an unusual, inventive intelligence and interest in technology, research or unconventional subjects. Classical texts advise care regarding children and speculation. Avoid shortcuts in education. Original thinking is your strength.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 3 from your lagna (courage, siblings) and Shani through house 4 (home, mother). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 3, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 4; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 5:

- Intelligence and devotion — what can happen: clear thinking, good advice and devotion that brings peace. To keep it that way: Write down decisions with reasons, and keep a short daily prayer or mantra practice.
- Children — what can happen: joy, progress and good news about children. To keep it that way: Give them patient time, guide without pressure and consult a doctor or teacher early when something worries you.

Shani – Guru: 14/02/2041 to 28/08/2043

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Guru again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 7 and 10 and sits in house 6 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Career and profession (favourable), Spiritual life (favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Guru in the sixth house helps you overcome enemies through wisdom and fair dealing, and supports careers in law, medicine, health care and service. Classical texts mention care with liver, weight and sugar balance, and with debts. Serving others brings you respect.

The seventh lord in the sixth house asks for patience and care in marriage, partnerships and legal matters.

The tenth lord in the sixth house brings career in service, medicine, law or administration, with competition at work.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 6 from your lagna (competition, debts) and Shani through house 5 (children, education). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 6, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 5; results built by steady work there last longest. Guru passes through house 6, which this sub-period itself activates, so its results are supported and easier to use.

Matters of house 6:

- Rivals and competition — what can happen: success over rivals and critics. To keep it that way: Stay calm, keep a record of your work and avoid gossip.
- Debts and loans — what can happen: a chance to clear loans and settle dues. To keep it that way: Plan repayments in advance, avoid fresh loans and speak to the lender early if you expect a delay.

Matters of house 7:

- Agreements and contracts — what can happen: favourable agreements and smooth negotiations. To keep it that way: Read every clause, ask questions before signing and keep copies.

- Spouse and married life — what can happen: understanding, romance and support from the spouse. To keep it that way: Talk daily with patience, keep outsiders out of private matters and fix some time together every week.

Budh mahadasha: 28/08/2043 to 27/08/2060

Budh's period favours learning, trade, writing, communication and intelligent planning. Business opportunities and new skills come forward. It is a time to study, negotiate and organise, and to keep the nerves calm.

Budh rules your houses 1 and 4 (health, personality and new beginnings; home, mother, property, vehicles and peace of mind), and it sits in a difficult house (6, 8 or 12), so care and patience are needed for the matters it governs — house 12, the house of expenses, foreign lands, spiritual life and sleep. It is in a friendly sign, which supports its results.

Overall tone: favourable. This period mainly activates: Education and learning (favourable), Health and vitality (favourable), Home, property and vehicles (favourable).

Most supportive sub-periods: Budh (28/08/2043), Shukra (21/01/2047). Sub-periods that ask for more care: Ravi (21/11/2049), Mangal (27/02/2052).

Budh in the twelfth house turns the intellect toward spirituality, research, foreign dealings or work behind the scenes. Classical texts warn of expenses through miscommunication and advise caution with paperwork. Meditation calms an overactive mind. Foreign trade or writing in solitude can be rewarding.

The lagna lord in the twelfth house can bring life abroad, spiritual interests and expenses. You may work in foreign lands, hospitals or institutions. Care with health and spending is advised.

The fourth lord in the twelfth house can bring residence abroad or away from the birthplace. Spend wisely on property and home.

Matters of house 12:

- Foreign lands and travel — what can happen: chances of foreign travel, study or work. To keep it that way: Keep your papers in order and use authorised agents only.
- Sleep and rest — what can happen: sound sleep and peaceful nights. To keep it that way: Keep a fixed bedtime, avoid screens before sleep and eat a light dinner.
- Spiritual growth — what can happen: inner peace, meditation and spiritual progress. To keep it that way: Meditate daily and stay in touch with family and friends.

Matters of house 1:

- Image and reputation — what can happen: recognition and a positive image among people. To keep it that way: Keep your promises, speak politely and avoid showing off.

Budh – Guru: 12/09/2055 to 18/12/2057

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Guru again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 7 and 10 and sits in house 6 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Education and learning (favourable), Health and vitality (favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

The seventh lord in the sixth house asks for patience and care in marriage, partnerships and legal matters.

The tenth lord in the sixth house brings career in service, medicine, law or administration, with competition at work.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 8 from your lagna (sudden changes, research) and Shani through house 10 (career, status and authority). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 8, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 10; results built by steady work there last longest. Shani passes through house 10, which this sub-period itself activates, so those matters arrive with weight, responsibility and lasting results.

Matters of house 6:

- Legal disputes — what can happen: a favourable outcome in a dispute. To keep it that way: Prefer a settlement, keep all records, and consult a qualified lawyer.
- Employees and helpers — what can happen: loyal and useful helpers or staff. To keep it that way: Give clear instructions and keep dealings fair and in writing.

Matters of house 7:

- Marriage prospects — what can happen: good proposals and progress in marriage talks. To keep it that way: Take time to know the person and the family, check compatibility calmly and do not hurry.
- Business partnerships — what can happen: profitable alliances and trustworthy partners. To keep it that way: Put every term in writing and take legal advice before signing.

Budh – Shani: 18/12/2057 to 27/08/2060

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Shani again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 8 and 9 and sits in house 10 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Travel and foreign connections (favourable), Education and learning (favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

The eighth lord in the tenth house can bring changes in career. Research, insurance, mining or investigation suit you.

The ninth lord in the tenth house forms a strong raja yoga (lords of the ninth and tenth). It brings status, success and honour.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 11 from your lagna (income, gains) and Shani through house 11 (income, gains). Both slow planets work on house 11 together, so these matters get a great deal of attention and the results are felt strongly.

Matters of house 10:

- Business and profession — what can happen: business expansion and a better name in the market. To keep it that way: Control costs, keep accounts clean and take expert advice before expanding.
- Boss and people in authority — what can happen: support from bosses and people in authority. To keep it that way: Communicate clearly, deliver on time and avoid public arguments.

Matters of house 8:

- Inheritance and joint money — what can happen: gains from inheritance, insurance or the spouse's family. To keep it that way: Keep wills and papers clear and take legal advice before any settlement.
- Research and hidden matters — what can happen: deep research, insight and success in studying hidden subjects. To keep it that way: Keep a regular routine and avoid extremes or risky practices.

Ketu mahadasha: 27/08/2060 to 28/08/2067

Ketu's period turns attention inward toward spirituality, research and letting go. Sudden changes may break old patterns. It is a time for meditation, simplicity and careful health management.

Ketu is a shadow planet that gives the results of the sign it occupies and of its lord, Mangal, and it sits in an upachaya house (3, 6, 10 or 11), which gives results that improve with effort over time — house 11, the house of income, gains, friends and fulfilment of desires. It is in a friendly sign, which supports its results.

Overall tone: mostly favourable. This period mainly activates: Spiritual life (mostly favourable).

Most supportive sub-periods: Shani (22/07/2065), Budh (31/08/2066). Sub-periods that ask for more care: Ravi (26/03/2062), Mangal (02/03/2063).

Ketu in the eleventh house brings gains, often unexpected, and fulfilment of desires with a sense of detachment. Classical texts consider this a good placement. Friends may be few but sincere.

Matters of house 11:

- Friends and contacts — what can happen: helpful friends and useful contacts. To keep it that way: Choose company carefully and do not lend money or stand guarantee for friends.
- Elder brothers and sisters — what can happen: support and good advice from elder siblings. To keep it that way: Respect them and keep money matters separate from the relationship.
- Fulfilment of wishes — what can happen: long-pending wishes begin to be fulfilled. To keep it that way: Set realistic goals and move towards them in steps.

Ketu – Ketu: 27/08/2060 to 24/01/2061

This sub-period of the main lord itself concentrates its results. Ketu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 11 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Spiritual life (favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 1 from your lagna (health, personality and new beginnings) and Shani through house 12 (expenses, foreign lands). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 1, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 12; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 11:

- Groups and associations — what can happen: support from groups, associations and communities. To keep it that way: Stay out of groups' quarrels and give your time only where it is valued.
- Income and gains — what can happen: an increase in income, bonuses or new sources of money. To keep it that way: Do not spend in advance on expected income and keep clear records of dues.

Ketu – Shukra: 24/01/2061 to 26/03/2062

SAMPLE

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 2 from your lagna (money, family and speech) and Shani through house 1 (health, personality and new beginnings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 2, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 1; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 12:

- Sleep and rest — what can happen: sound sleep and peaceful nights. To keep it that way: Keep a fixed bedtime, avoid screens before sleep and eat a light dinner.
- Spiritual growth — what can happen: inner peace, meditation and spiritual progress. To keep it that way: Meditate daily and stay in touch with family and friends.

Matters of house 5:

- Romance — what can happen: warmth and happiness in love. To keep it that way: Be honest, go slowly and do not commit in a hurry.
- Children — what can happen: joy, progress and good news about children. To keep it that way: Give them patient time, guide without pressure and consult a doctor or teacher early when something worries you.

Ketu – Ravi: 26/03/2062 to 01/08/2062

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Ravi again brings the matters of its own house: it rules house 3 and sits in house 1 of your chart. Tone: mixed.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 2 from your lagna (money, family and speech) and Shani through house 1 (health, personality and new beginnings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 2, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 1; results built by steady work there last longest. Shani passes through house 1, which this sub-period itself activates, so those matters arrive with weight, responsibility and lasting results.

Matters of house 1:

- Health and energy — what can happen: better energy, stamina and a quicker recovery; on the difficult side, tiredness, low immunity or small health complaints. What helps: Keep fixed times for sleep and meals, exercise daily and do regular check-ups. See a doctor early for any symptom instead of waiting.
- Confidence and personality — what can happen: more confidence, a stronger presence and people noticing you in a good way; on the difficult side, impatience, ego clashes or feeling unsure of yourself. What helps: Pause before reacting, listen first and take big decisions only after a night of thought.

Matters of house 3:

- Short journeys — what can happen: useful and pleasant short journeys; on the difficult side, delays or small mishaps while travelling. What helps: Plan ahead, keep documents ready and drive carefully.
- Writing, media and skills — what can happen: success in writing, sales, media, calls and skill-building; on the difficult side, miscommunication or lost papers. What helps: Double-check messages and documents before sending and keep copies.

Ketu – Chandra: 01/08/2062 to 02/03/2063

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Chandra again brings the matters of its own house: it rules house

SAMPLE

2 and sits in house 9 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Wealth and finances (mostly favourable), Spiritual life (mostly favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 3 from your lagna (courage, siblings) and Shani through house 1 (health, personality and new beginnings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 3, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 1; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 9:

- Father — what can happen: good news, support or blessings from your father or father-like figures. To keep it that way: Speak to him often, avoid old arguments and make sure his regular health check-ups are not skipped.
- Teachers and mentors — what can happen: guidance from a good teacher or mentor. To keep it that way: Respect your teachers, seek their advice before big decisions and learn with humility.

Matters of house 2:

- Savings and money in hand — what can happen: a steady inflow of money and better savings. To keep it that way: Keep a monthly budget and save first, spend afterwards. Take advice from a qualified financial adviser before investing or lending.
- Family life — what can happen: harmony, togetherness and support at home. To keep it that way: Eat together when possible, avoid taunts and settle money matters between relatives in writing.

Ketu – Mangal: 02/03/2063 to 29/07/2063

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Mangal again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 6 and 11 and sits in house 3 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Wealth and finances (mixed), Home, property and vehicles (mixed). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 3 from your lagna (courage, siblings) and Shani through house 1 (health, personality and new beginnings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 3, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 1; results built by steady work there last longest. Guru passes through house 3, which this sub-period itself activates, so its results are supported and easier to use.

Matters of house 3:

- Neighbours and local contacts — what can happen: good support from neighbours and people nearby; on the difficult side, small quarrels with neighbours or colleagues. What helps: Be courteous, avoid gossip and settle small matters quickly.
- Courage and effort — what can happen: extra courage and the energy to finish what you start; on the difficult side, scattered effort or hesitation. What helps: Set small daily targets and finish one task before you begin the next.

Matters of house 6:

- Rivals and competition — what can happen: success over rivals and critics; on the difficult side, stronger opposition or office politics. What helps: Stay calm, keep a record of your work and avoid gossip.
- Debts and loans — what can happen: a chance to clear loans and settle dues; on the difficult side, pressure from debts or instalments. What helps: Plan repayments in advance, avoid fresh loans and speak to the lender early if you expect a delay.

Ketu – Rahu: 29/07/2063 to 15/08/2064

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Rahu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 5 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 4 from your lagna (home, mother) and Shani through house 2 (money, family and speech). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 4, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 2; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 5:

- Education and studies — what can happen: good concentration and success in studies and exams. To keep it that way: Follow a fixed timetable, study in short focused sessions and keep the phone away.
- Creativity and talents — what can happen: ideas that flow and talents that get noticed. To keep it that way: Practise for a fixed short time every day and finish small pieces.

Ketu – Guru: 15/08/2064 to 22/07/2065

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Guru again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 7 and 10 and sits in house 6 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Spiritual life (mixed). The two lords sit in a 6/8 relation in your chart, so the themes of the main period and sub-period can pull against each other.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 5 from your lagna (children, education) and Shani through house 2 (money, family and speech). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 5, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 2; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 6:

- Health and daily routine — what can happen: good recovery and discipline in daily routine; on the difficult side, digestive, stress-related or recurring minor complaints. What helps: Eat light, exercise and do regular check-ups. Consult a doctor early; do not rely on remedies alone.
- Service and daily work — what can happen: recognition for hard work and service; on the difficult side, heavy workload and tiredness. What helps: Prioritise tasks, delegate where you can and take proper breaks.

Matters of house 7:

- Clients and public dealings — what can happen: a good response from customers, clients and the public; on the difficult side, difficult clients or public criticism. What helps: Be polite, keep your word and keep proper records of agreements.
- Agreements and contracts — what can happen: favourable agreements and smooth negotiations; on the difficult side, delay or disagreement over terms. What helps: Read every clause, ask questions before signing and keep copies.

Ketu – Shani: 22/07/2065 to 31/08/2066

SAMPLE

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 6 from your lagna (competition, debts) and Shani through house 2 (money, family and speech). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 6, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 2; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 10:

- Status and public image — what can happen: a rise in status and respect. To keep it that way: Keep your conduct above reproach and think twice before posting anything online.
- Official and government matters — what can happen: favour in official or government matters. To keep it that way: Keep documents complete and follow the rules strictly.

Matters of house 8:

- Health and safety — what can happen: recovery after a period of illness. To keep it that way: Do regular check-ups, avoid risky activities and drive and travel carefully. Consult a doctor early.
- Spouse's finances — what can happen: support from the spouse's resources. To keep it that way: Discuss money openly and keep joint accounts and responsibilities clear.

Ketu – Budh: 31/08/2066 to 28/08/2067

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Budh again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 1 and 4 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Home, property and vehicles (favourable).

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 7 from your lagna (marriage, partnerships and public dealings) and Shani through house 3 (courage, siblings). Matters of house 1:

- Image and reputation — what can happen: recognition and a positive image among people. To keep it that way: Keep your promises, speak politely and avoid showing off.
- Health and energy — what can happen: better energy, stamina and a quicker recovery. To keep it that way: Keep fixed times for sleep and meals, exercise daily and do regular check-ups. See a doctor early for any symptom instead of waiting.

Shukra mahadasha: 28/08/2067 to 28/08/2087

Shukra's period highlights marriage, comforts, vehicles, the arts and enjoyment. Relationships and finances often improve. It is a time to enjoy life with balance and to avoid overindulgence.

Shukra rules your houses 5 and 12 (children, education, intelligence and creativity; expenses, foreign lands, spiritual life and sleep), and it sits in a difficult house (6, 8 or 12), so care and patience are needed for the matters it governs — house 12, the house of expenses, foreign lands, spiritual life and sleep. It is in its own sign, which gives it confidence and stability.

SAMPLE

Overall tone: favourable. This period mainly activates: Children (favourable), Travel and foreign connections (favourable), Education and learning (favourable).

Most supportive sub-periods: Shani (28/06/2080), Budh (28/08/2083). Sub-periods that ask for more care: Ravi (28/12/2070), Mangal (28/08/2073).

Shukra in the twelfth house is traditionally considered good for comforts, bed pleasures and spending on luxury, travel and the arts. It also gives compassion and interest in spiritual pleasures. Classical texts treat the twelfth as a house where Shukra does unusually well. Control spending and avoid secret indulgences.

The fifth lord in the twelfth house gives spiritual interests and may bring expenses on children or education, or study abroad.

The twelfth lord in its own house supports spiritual life, foreign settlement and charitable spending.

Matters of house 12:

- Expenses — what can happen: money spent on comfort, family or good causes. To keep it that way: Keep a budget, avoid impulse buying and maintain a reserve fund.
- Foreign lands and travel — what can happen: chances of foreign travel, study or work. To keep it that way: Keep your papers in order and use authorised agents only.
- Sleep and rest — what can happen: sound sleep and peaceful nights. To keep it that way: Keep a fixed bedtime, avoid screens before sleep and eat a light dinner.

Matters of house 5:

- Romance — what can happen: warmth and happiness in love. To keep it that way: Be honest, go slowly and do not commit in a hurry.
- Speculation and investments — what can happen: gains through sound judgement. To keep it that way: Avoid speculation and tips. Invest only after advice from a qualified financial adviser, and never with borrowed money.
- Intelligence and devotion — what can happen: clear thinking, good advice and devotion that brings peace. To keep it that way: Write down decisions with reasons, and keep a short daily prayer or mantra practice.

Shukra – Shukra: 28/08/2067 to 28/12/2070

This sub-period of the main lord itself concentrates its results. Shukra again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 5 and 12 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Children (favourable), Travel and foreign connections (favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 9 from your lagna (fortune, father) and Shani through house 4 (home, mother). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 9, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 4; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 12:

- Spiritual growth — what can happen: inner peace, meditation and spiritual progress. To keep it that way: Meditate daily and stay in touch with family and friends.
- Hospitals and hidden worries — what can happen: recovery and release from old worries. To keep it that way: Go for a check-up early and consult a doctor; do not ignore small symptoms.

Matters of house 5:

- Children — what can happen: joy, progress and good news about children. To keep it that

The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 1 from your lagna (health, personality and new beginnings) and Shani through house 5 (children, education). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 1, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 5; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 9:

- Religion and faith — what can happen: peace through prayer, a pilgrimage or a spiritual lead. To keep it that way: Keep a simple daily practice and be careful of anyone who asks for money in return for blessings.
- Long journeys — what can happen: a beneficial long journey, pilgrimage or foreign visit. To keep it that way: Plan and book ahead, keep insurance and documents ready.

Matters of house 2:

SAMPLE

- Speech and communication — what can happen: words that carry weight and people who listen to you. To keep it that way: Think before speaking, avoid arguments, and put important things in writing.
- Food and eating habits — what can happen: enjoyment of good food and family meals. To keep it that way: Eat on time, keep meals simple and avoid heavy food late at night.

Shukra – Mangal: 28/08/2073 to 28/10/2074

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Mangal again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 6 and 11 and sits in house 3 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Travel and foreign connections (mostly favourable), Wealth and finances (mostly favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 2 from your lagna (money, family and speech) and Shani through house 6 (competition, debts). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 2, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 6; results built by steady work there last longest. Shani passes through house 6, which this sub-period itself activates, so those matters arrive with weight, responsibility and lasting results.

Matters of house 3:

- Writing, media and skills — what can happen: success in writing, sales, media, calls and skill-building. To keep it that way: Double-check messages and documents before sending and keep copies.
- Neighbours and local contacts — what can happen: good support from neighbours and people nearby. To keep it that way: Be courteous, avoid gossip and settle small matters quickly.

Matters of house 6:

- Legal disputes — what can happen: a favourable outcome in a dispute. To keep it that way: Prefer a settlement, keep all records, and consult a qualified lawyer.
- Employees and helpers — what can happen: loyal and useful helpers or staff. To keep it that way: Give clear instructions and keep dealings fair and in writing.

Shukra – Rahu: 28/10/2074 to 28/10/2077

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Rahu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 5 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Children (favourable), Travel and foreign connections (favourable). The two lords sit in a 6/8 relation in your chart, so the themes of the main period and sub-period can pull against each other.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 4 from your lagna (home, mother) and Shani through house 7 (marriage, partnerships and public dealings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 4, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 7; results built by steady work there last longest.

Guru again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 7 and 10 and sits in house 6 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Children (favourable), Marriage and partnership (favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 7 from your lagna (marriage, partnerships and public dealings) and Shani through house 8 (sudden changes, research). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 7, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 8; results built by steady work there last longest. Guru passes through house 7, which this sub-period itself activates, so its results are supported and easier to use.

Matters of house 6:

- Rivals and competition — what can happen: success over rivals and critics. To keep it that way: Stay calm, keep a record of your work and avoid gossip.
- Debts and loans — what can happen: a chance to clear loans and settle dues. To keep it that way: Plan repayments in advance, avoid fresh loans and speak to the lender early if you expect a delay.

Matters of house 7:

- Spouse and married life — what can happen: understanding, romance and support from the spouse. To keep it that way: Talk daily with patience, keep outsiders out of private matters and fix some time together every week.
- Marriage prospects — what can happen: good proposals and progress in marriage talks. To keep it that way: Take time to know the person and the family, check compatibility calmly and do not hurry.

Shukra – Shani: 28/06/2080 to 28/08/2083

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Shani again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 8 and 9 and sits in house 10 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Children (favourable), Travel and foreign connections (favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 10 from your lagna (career, status and authority) and Shani through house 9 (fortune, father). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 10, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 9; results built by steady work there last longest. Both slow planets meet the houses this sub-period activates, which makes it one of the more eventful stretches of this stage.

Matters of house 10:

- Job and career growth — what can happen: growth, recognition and a step up at work. To keep it that way: Do quality work, keep improving your skills and do not leave a job in haste without another offer in hand.
- Business and profession — what can happen: business expansion and a better name in the market. To keep it that way: Control costs, keep accounts clean and take expert advice before expanding.

Matters of house 8:

SAMPLE

- Sudden changes — what can happen: unexpected help and positive turning points. To keep it that way: Keep a small emergency fund and a backup plan for important matters.
- Inheritance and joint money — what can happen: gains from inheritance, insurance or the spouse's family. To keep it that way: Keep wills and papers clear and take legal advice before any settlement.

Shukra – Budh: 28/08/2083 to 28/06/2086

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Budh again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 1 and 4 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Travel and foreign connections (favourable), Education and learning (favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 1 from your lagna (health, personality and new beginnings) and Shani through house 10 (career, status and authority). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 1, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 10; results built by steady work there last longest. Guru passes through house 1, which this sub-period itself activates, so its results are supported and easier to use.

Matters of house 12:

- Losses through carelessness — what can happen: the end of an old burden. To keep it that way: Keep valuables safe, check bills and agreements, and do not trust blindly.
- Expenses — what can happen: money spent on comfort, family or good causes. To keep it that way: Keep a budget, avoid impulse buying and maintain a reserve fund.

Matters of house 1:

- Image and reputation — what can happen: recognition and a positive image among people. To keep it that way: Keep your promises, speak politely and avoid showing off.
- Health and energy — what can happen: better energy, stamina and a quicker recovery. To keep it that way: Keep fixed times for sleep and meals, exercise daily and do regular check-ups. See a doctor early for any symptom instead of waiting.

Shukra – Ketu: 28/06/2086 to 28/08/2087

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Ketu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 11 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Spiritual life (favourable), Children (favourable).

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 3 from your lagna (courage, siblings) and Shani through house 10 (career, status and authority). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 3, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 10; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 11:

- Friends and contacts — what can happen: helpful friends and useful contacts. To keep it that way: Choose company carefully and do not lend money or stand guarantee for friends.
- Elder brothers and sisters — what can happen: support and good advice from elder siblings. To keep it that way: Respect them and keep money matters separate from the relationship.

Ravi mahadasha: 28/08/2087 to 28/08/2093

The Ravi's period brings questions of authority, self-respect and recognition to the front. Dealings with government, father and seniors become important. It is a time to take responsibility and lead, and to look after the heart, eyes and energy levels.

Ravi rules your house 3 (courage, siblings, short travel and communication), and it sits in a supportive house (a kendra or trikona) in your chart, which generally gives good results — house 1, the house of health, personality and new beginnings. It is in a neutral sign.

Overall tone: testing. This period mainly activates: Health and vitality (testing), Career and profession (testing), Travel and foreign connections (testing).

Most supportive sub-periods: Budh (16/06/2091), Shani (04/07/2090). Sub-periods that ask for more care: Ravi (28/08/2087), Mangal (16/06/2088).

With the Ravi in the first house you have a strong sense of self, a dignified manner and the will to lead. People notice you, and you prefer to stand on your own feet. Confidence and a sense of honour are your strengths; pride, a sharp temper and impatience with criticism are the weaknesses to manage. Classical texts link this placement with good vitality but also with heat-related complaints, eye strain and occasional headaches. You do well in positions of responsibility, and support from government or seniors is likely when you act with integrity.

The third lord in the lagna gives courage, self-confidence and a talent for communication. You are enterprising and willing to take initiative.

Matters of house 1:

- New beginnings — what can happen: starts that are rushed or lack planning. What helps: Plan first, take advice, and begin small so that you can test before going big.
- Confidence and personality — what can happen: impatience, ego clashes or feeling unsure of yourself. What helps: Pause before reacting, listen first and take big decisions only after a night of thought.
- Image and reputation — what can happen: being misjudged or criticised for small things. What helps: Keep your promises, speak politely and avoid showing off.

Matters of house 3:

- Younger brothers and sisters — what can happen: misunderstandings or worry about a younger sibling. What helps: Stay in touch, help without keeping accounts, and keep property or money matters clear between you.
- Short journeys — what can happen: delays or small mishaps while travelling. What helps: Plan ahead, keep documents ready and drive carefully.
- Writing, media and skills — what can happen: miscommunication or lost papers. What helps: Double-check messages and documents before sending and keep copies.

Ravi – Ravi: 28/08/2087 to 16/12/2087

This sub-period of the main lord itself concentrates its results. Ravi again brings the matters of its own house: it rules house 3 and sits in house 1 of your chart. Tone: testing. Activates: Health and vitality (testing), Career and profession (testing). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 4 from your lagna (home, mother) and Shani through house 11 (income, gains). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 4, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 11; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 1:

- New beginnings — what can happen: starts that are rushed or lack planning. What helps: Plan first, take advice, and begin small so that you can test before going big.

- Health and energy — what can happen: tiredness, low immunity or small health complaints. What helps: Keep fixed times for sleep and meals, exercise daily and do regular check-ups. See a doctor early for any symptom instead of waiting.

Matters of house 3:

- Courage and effort — what can happen: scattered effort or hesitation. What helps: Set small daily targets and finish one task before you begin the next.
- Younger brothers and sisters — what can happen: misunderstandings or worry about a younger sibling. What helps: Stay in touch, help without keeping accounts, and keep property or money matters clear between you.

Ravi – Chandra: 16/12/2087 to 16/06/2088

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Chandra again brings the matters of its own house: it rules house 2 and sits in house 9 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Health and vitality (mixed), Career and profession (mixed). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 4 from your lagna (home, mother) and Shani through house 11 (income, gains). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 4, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 11; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 9:

- Higher studies — what can happen: admission or success in higher studies, research or courses; on the difficult side, obstacles or changes in higher-study plans. What helps: Apply early and keep a backup option ready.
- Charity and good deeds — what can happen: an opportunity to do meaningful charity that brings blessings; on the difficult side, giving that is misdirected or not appreciated. What helps: Give quietly to genuine causes and never beyond your means.

Matters of house 2:

- Family wealth and valuables — what can happen: growth in family assets, gold or valuables; on the difficult side, worry over family assets or a delay in a family settlement. What helps: Keep valuables safe and papers organised, and discuss family assets openly and calmly.
- Savings and money in hand — what can happen: a steady inflow of money and better savings; on the difficult side, money slipping away or savings getting delayed. What helps: Keep a monthly budget and save first, spend afterwards. Take advice from a qualified financial adviser before investing or lending.

Ravi – Mangal: 16/06/2088 to 21/10/2088

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Mangal again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 6 and 11 and sits in house 3 of your chart. Tone: testing. Activates: Health and vitality (testing), Career and profession (testing).

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 4 from your lagna (home, mother) and Shani through house 12 (expenses, foreign lands). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 4, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 12; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 3:

SAMPLE

- Neighbours and local contacts — what can happen: small quarrels with neighbours or colleagues. What helps: Be courteous, avoid gossip and settle small matters quickly.
- Courage and effort — what can happen: scattered effort or hesitation. What helps: Set small daily targets and finish one task before you begin the next.

Matters of house 6:

- Health and daily routine — what can happen: digestive, stress-related or recurring minor complaints. What helps: Eat light, exercise and do regular check-ups. Consult a doctor early; do not rely on remedies alone.
- Service and daily work — what can happen: heavy workload and tiredness. What helps: Prioritise tasks, delegate where you can and take proper breaks.

Ravi – Rahu: 21/10/2088 to 15/09/2089

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Rahu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 5 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Travel and foreign connections (mixed). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 5 from your lagna (children, education) and Shani through house 11 (income, gains). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 5, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 11; results built by steady work there last longest. Guru passes through house 5, which this sub-period itself activates, so its results are supported and easier to use.

Matters of house 5:

- Intelligence and devotion — what can happen: clear thinking, good advice and devotion that brings peace; on the difficult side, confusion or overthinking. What helps: Write down decisions with reasons, and keep a short daily prayer or mantra practice.
- Children — what can happen: joy, progress and good news about children; on the difficult side, worry about a child's studies, health or behaviour. What helps: Give them patient time, guide without pressure and consult a doctor or teacher early when something worries you.

Ravi – Guru: 15/09/2089 to 04/07/2090

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Guru again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 7 and 10 and sits in house 6 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Career and profession (mixed), Health and vitality (mixed). The two lords sit in a 6/8 relation in your chart, so the themes of the main period and sub-period can pull against each other.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 6 from your lagna (competition, debts) and Shani through house 12 (expenses, foreign lands). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 6, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 12; results built by steady work there last longest. Guru passes through house 6, which this sub-period itself activates, so its results are supported and easier to use.

Matters of house 6:

- Legal disputes — what can happen: a favourable outcome in a dispute; on the difficult side, a dispute that drags on. What helps: Prefer a settlement, keep all records, and consult a qualified lawyer.
- Employees and helpers — what can happen: loyal and useful helpers or staff; on the difficult side, trouble with staff or helpers. What helps: Give clear instructions and keep dealings fair and in writing.

Matters of house 7:

- Business partnerships — what can happen: profitable alliances and trustworthy partners; on the difficult side, disagreements or unclear terms with a partner. What helps: Put every term in writing and take legal advice before signing.
- Clients and public dealings — what can happen: a good response from customers, clients and the public; on the difficult side, difficult clients or public criticism. What helps: Be polite, keep your word and keep proper records of agreements.

Ravi – Shani: 04/07/2090 to 16/06/2091

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Shani again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 8 and 9 and sits in house 10 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Health and vitality (mostly favourable), Career and profession (mostly favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 7 from your lagna (marriage, partnerships and public dealings) and Shani through house 12 (expenses, foreign lands). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 7, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 12; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 10:

- Boss and people in authority — what can happen: support from bosses and people in authority; on the difficult side, friction with a senior or with authority. What helps: Communicate clearly, deliver on time and avoid public arguments.
- Status and public image — what can happen: a rise in status and respect; on the difficult side, criticism or loss of face over a small matter. What helps: Keep your conduct above reproach and think twice before posting anything online.

Matters of house 8:

- Research and hidden matters — what can happen: deep research, insight and success in studying hidden subjects; on the difficult side, confusion or obsessive worry. What helps: Keep a regular routine and avoid extremes or risky practices.
- Health and safety — what can happen: recovery after a period of illness; on the difficult side, the need for care with chronic or hidden health matters and with accidents. What helps: Do regular check-ups, avoid risky activities and drive and travel carefully. Consult a doctor early.

Ravi – Budh: 16/06/2091 to 22/04/2092

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Budh again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 1 and 4 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Health and vitality (mostly favourable), Travel and foreign connections (mostly favourable).

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 7 from your lagna (marriage, partnerships and public dealings) and Shani through house 1 (health, personality and new beginnings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 7, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 1; results built by steady work there last longest. Shani passes through house 1, which this sub-period itself activates, so those matters arrive with weight, responsibility and lasting results.

SAMPLE

Matters of house 12:

- Foreign lands and travel — what can happen: chances of foreign travel, study or work. To keep it that way: Keep your papers in order and use authorised agents only.
- Sleep and rest — what can happen: sound sleep and peaceful nights. To keep it that way: Keep a fixed bedtime, avoid screens before sleep and eat a light dinner.

Matters of house 1:

- Image and reputation — what can happen: recognition and a positive image among people. To keep it that way: Keep your promises, speak politely and avoid showing off.
- Health and energy — what can happen: better energy, stamina and a quicker recovery. To keep it that way: Keep fixed times for sleep and meals, exercise daily and do regular check-ups. See a doctor early for any symptom instead of waiting.

Ravi – Ketu: 22/04/2092 to 28/08/2092

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Ketu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 11 of your chart. Tone: mixed. The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 9 from your lagna (fortune, father) and Shani through house 1 (health, personality and new beginnings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 9, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 1; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 11:

- Fulfilment of wishes — what can happen: long-pending wishes begin to be fulfilled; on the difficult side, wishes that need more patience. What helps: Set realistic goals and move towards them in steps.
- Groups and associations — what can happen: support from groups, associations and communities; on the difficult side, being pulled into the conflicts of a group. What helps: Stay out of groups' quarrels and give your time only where it is valued.

Ravi – Shukra: 28/08/2092 to 28/08/2093

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Shukra again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 5 and 12 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Travel and foreign connections (mixed).

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 9 from your lagna (fortune, father) and Shani through house 1 (health, personality and new beginnings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 9, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 1; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 12:

- Spiritual growth — what can happen: inner peace, meditation and spiritual progress; on the difficult side, withdrawal or a feeling of loneliness. What helps: Meditate daily and stay in touch with family and friends.
- Hospitals and hidden worries — what can happen: recovery and release from old worries; on the difficult side, hospital visits or hidden worries. What helps: Go for a check-up early and consult a doctor; do not ignore small symptoms.

Matters of house 5:

SAMPLE

- Romance — what can happen: warmth and happiness in love; on the difficult side, misunderstandings or an unwise choice in love. What helps: Be honest, go slowly and do not commit in a hurry.
- Education and studies — what can happen: good concentration and success in studies and exams; on the difficult side, distraction or results lower than the effort. What helps: Follow a fixed timetable, study in short focused sessions and keep the phone away.

Chandra mahadasha: 28/08/2093 to 29/08/2103

The Chandra's period highlights the mind, emotions, family and public life. Travel, change of residence and new contacts are common. It is a time to nurture relationships and to protect peace of mind, sleep and fluid balance.

Chandra rules your house 2 (money, family and speech), and it sits in a supportive house (a kendra or trikona) in your chart, which generally gives good results — house 9, the house of fortune, father, teachers, religion and long journeys. It is in a neutral sign.

Overall tone: mostly favourable. This period mainly activates: Wealth and finances (mostly favourable), Spiritual life (mostly favourable), Marriage and partnership (mostly favourable).

Most supportive sub-periods: Shani (27/11/2097), Budh (29/06/2099). Sub-periods that ask for more care: Mangal (28/06/2094), Guru (28/07/2096).

The Chandra in the ninth house gives a religious, kind and fortunate disposition. You enjoy travel, pilgrimages and learning, and you often receive support from mother or motherly figures. Classical texts consider this a good placement for fortune and reputation. Your beliefs may evolve over life. Charity and respect for teachers strengthen your luck.

The second lord in the ninth house is fortunate for wealth. Money comes through luck, father, teachers or religious and educational work.

Matters of house 9:

- Luck and fortune — what can happen: luck supports you and your efforts bear fruit. To keep it that way: Keep working steadily, do not rely on luck alone and give to charity with gratitude.
- Father — what can happen: good news, support or blessings from your father or father-like figures. To keep it that way: Speak to him often, avoid old arguments and make sure his regular health check-ups are not skipped.
- Teachers and mentors — what can happen: guidance from a good teacher or mentor. To keep it that way: Respect your teachers, seek their advice before big decisions and learn with humility.

Matters of house 2:

- Family life — what can happen: harmony, togetherness and support at home. To keep it that way: Eat together when possible, avoid taunts and settle money matters between relatives in writing.
- Speech and communication — what can happen: words that carry weight and people who listen to you. To keep it that way: Think before speaking, avoid arguments, and put important things in writing.
- Food and eating habits — what can happen: enjoyment of good food and family meals. To keep it that way: Eat on time, keep meals simple and avoid heavy food late at night.

SAMPLE

Chandra – Chandra: 28/08/2093 to 28/06/2094

This sub-period of the main lord itself concentrates its results. Chandra again brings the matters of its own house: it rules house 2 and sits in house 9 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Wealth and finances (mostly favourable), Spiritual life (mostly favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 10 from your lagna (career, status and authority) and Shani through house 2 (money, family and speech). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 10, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 2; results built by steady work there last longest. Shani passes through house 2, which this sub-period itself activates, so those matters arrive with weight, responsibility and lasting results.

Matters of house 9:

- Religion and faith — what can happen: peace through prayer, a pilgrimage or a spiritual lead. To keep it that way: Keep a simple daily practice and be careful of anyone who asks for money in return for blessings.
- Long journeys — what can happen: a beneficial long journey, pilgrimage or foreign visit. To keep it that way: Plan and book ahead, keep insurance and documents ready.

Matters of house 2:

The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 12 from your lagna (expenses, foreign lands) and Shani through house 3 (courage, siblings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 12, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 3; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 5:

- Creativity and talents — what can happen: ideas that flow and talents that get noticed. To keep it that way: Practise for a fixed short time every day and finish small pieces.
- Speculation and investments — what can happen: gains through sound judgement. To keep it that way: Avoid speculation and tips. Invest only after advice from a qualified financial adviser, and never with borrowed money.

Chandra – Guru: 28/07/2096 to 27/11/2097

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Guru again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 7 and 10 and sits in house 6 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Marriage and partnership (mixed), Wealth and finances (mixed). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 1 from your lagna (health, personality and new beginnings) and Shani through house 3 (courage, siblings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 1, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 3; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 6:

- Health and daily routine — what can happen: good recovery and discipline in daily routine; on the difficult side, digestive, stress-related or recurring minor complaints. What helps: Eat light, exercise and do regular check-ups. Consult a doctor early; do not rely on remedies alone.
- Service and daily work — what can happen: recognition for hard work and service; on the difficult side, heavy workload and tiredness. What helps: Prioritise tasks, delegate where you can and take proper breaks.

Matters of house 7:

- Agreements and contracts — what can happen: favourable agreements and smooth negotiations; on the difficult side, delay or disagreement over terms. What helps: Read every clause, ask questions before signing and keep copies.
- Spouse and married life — what can happen: understanding, romance and support from the spouse; on the difficult side, differences, distance or ego clashes with the spouse. What helps: Talk daily with patience, keep outsiders out of private matters and fix some time together every week.

SAMPLE

Chandra – Shani: 27/11/2097 to 29/06/2099

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Shani again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 8 and 9 and sits in house 10 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Spiritual life (favourable), Wealth and finances (favourable).

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 3 from your lagna (courage, siblings) and Shani through house 4 (home, mother). Chandra – Ketu: 28/11/2100 to 29/06/2101

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Ketu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 11 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Wealth and finances (mostly favourable), Spiritual life (mostly favourable).

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 5 from your lagna (children, education) and Shani through house 5 (children, education). Both slow planets work on house 5 together, so these matters get a great deal of attention and the results are felt strongly.

Matters of house 11:

- Income and gains — what can happen: an increase in income, bonuses or new sources of money. To keep it that way: Do not spend in advance on expected income and keep clear records of dues.
- Friends and contacts — what can happen: helpful friends and useful contacts. To keep it that way: Choose company carefully and do not lend money or stand guarantee for friends.

Chandra – Shukra: 29/06/2101 to 28/02/2103

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Shukra again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 5 and 12 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: favourable. Activates: Spiritual life (favourable), Wealth and finances (favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 6 from your lagna (competition, debts) and Shani through house 5 (children, education). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 6, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 5; results built by steady work there last longest. Shani passes through house 5, which this sub-period itself activates, so those matters arrive with weight, responsibility and lasting results.

Matters of house 12:

- Foreign lands and travel — what can happen: chances of foreign travel, study or work. To keep it that way: Keep your papers in order and use authorised agents only.
- Sleep and rest — what can happen: sound sleep and peaceful nights. To keep it that way: Keep a fixed bedtime, avoid screens before sleep and eat a light dinner.

Matters of house 5:

- Romance — what can happen: warmth and happiness in love. To keep it that way: Be honest, go slowly and do not commit in a hurry.
- Intelligence and devotion — what can happen: clear thinking, good advice and devotion that brings peace. To keep it that way: Write down decisions with reasons, and keep a short daily prayer or mantra practice.

Chandra – Ravi: 28/02/2103 to 29/08/2103

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Ravi again brings the matters of its own house: it rules house 3 and sits in house 1 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Health and vitality (mixed), Wealth and finances (mixed). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 8 from your lagna (sudden changes, research) and Shani through house 6 (competition, debts). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 8, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 6; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 1:

- Confidence and personality — what can happen: more confidence, a stronger presence and people noticing you in a good way; on the difficult side, impatience, ego clashes or feeling unsure of yourself. What helps: Pause before reacting, listen first and take big decisions only after a night of thought.
- New beginnings — what can happen: a good time to start something new or to change your approach; on the difficult side, starts that are rushed or lack planning. What helps: Plan first, take advice, and begin small so that you can test before going big.

Matters of house 3:

- Younger brothers and sisters — what can happen: closeness and support from younger siblings; on the difficult side, misunderstandings or worry about a younger sibling. What helps: Stay in touch, help without keeping accounts, and keep property or money matters clear between you.
- Short journeys — what can happen: useful and pleasant short journeys; on the difficult side, delays or small mishaps while travelling. What helps: Plan ahead, keep documents ready and drive carefully.

Mangal mahadasha: 29/08/2103 to 29/08/2110

The period of Mangal brings energy, competition and action. Property, land, technical work and courageous decisions are in focus. It is a time to work hard and build, while avoiding haste, quarrels and accidents.

Mangal rules your houses 6 and 11 (competition, debts, illness, service and enemies; income, gains, friends and fulfilment of desires), and it sits in an upachaya house (3, 6, 10 or 11), which gives results that improve with effort over time — house 3, the house of courage, siblings, short travel and communication. It is in a friendly sign, which supports its results.

Overall tone: testing. This period mainly activates: Career and profession (testing), Wealth and finances (testing), Health and vitality (testing).

Most supportive sub-periods: Shani (19/01/2106), Budh (28/02/2107). Sub-periods that ask for more care: Ravi (22/09/2109), Mangal (29/08/2103).

Mangal in the third house is one of its best positions. It gives exceptional courage, initiative and the ability to overcome competitors. You can do well in sports, the forces, technical work, sales or any field needing bold effort. Classical texts praise this placement for valour and success through one's own effort. Relations with siblings may be competitive but protective.

The sixth lord in the third house gives courage to defeat opponents. This is generally a good placement for victory.

The eleventh lord in the third house brings gains through effort, siblings, communication and travel.

Matters of house 3:

- Neighbours and local contacts — what can happen: small quarrels with neighbours or colleagues. What helps: Be courteous, avoid gossip and settle small matters quickly.
- Courage and effort — what can happen: scattered effort or hesitation. What helps: Set small daily targets and finish one task before you begin the next.
- Writing, media and skills — what can happen: miscommunication or lost papers. What helps:

Double-check messages and documents before sending and keep copies.

Matters of house 6:

- Legal disputes — what can happen: a dispute that drags on. What helps: Prefer a settlement, keep all records, and consult a qualified lawyer.
- Employees and helpers — what can happen: trouble with staff or helpers. What helps: Give clear instructions and keep dealings fair and in writing.
- Rivals and competition — what can happen: stronger opposition or office politics. What helps: Stay calm, keep a record of your work and avoid gossip.

Matters of house 11:

- Groups and associations — what can happen: being pulled into the conflicts of a group. What helps: Stay out of groups' quarrels and give your time only where it is valued.
- Income and gains — what can happen: income lower than expected or payments delayed. What helps: Do not spend in advance on expected income and keep clear records of dues.
- Friends and contacts — what can happen: friends who disappoint or drain your time and money. What helps: Choose company carefully and do not lend money or stand guarantee for friends.

Mangal – Mangal: 29/08/2103 to 26/01/2104

This sub-period of the main lord itself concentrates its results. Mangal again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 6 and 11 and sits in house 3 of your chart. Tone: testing. Activates: Career and profession (testing), Wealth and finances (testing). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 7 from your lagna (marriage, partnerships and public dealings) and Shani through house 6 (competition, debts). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 7, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 6; results built by steady work there last longest. Shani passes through house 6, which this sub-period itself activates, so those matters arrive with weight, responsibility and lasting results.

Matters of house 3:

- Neighbours and local contacts — what can happen: small quarrels with neighbours or colleagues. What helps: Be courteous, avoid gossip and settle small matters quickly.
- Courage and effort — what can happen: scattered effort or hesitation. What helps: Set small daily targets and finish one task before you begin the next.

Matters of house 6:

- Debts and loans — what can happen: pressure from debts or instalments. What helps: Plan repayments in advance, avoid fresh loans and speak to the lender early if you expect a delay.
- Health and daily routine — what can happen: digestive, stress-related or recurring minor complaints. What helps: Eat light, exercise and do regular check-ups. Consult a doctor early; do not rely on remedies alone.

Mangal – Rahu: 26/01/2104 to 12/02/2105

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Rahu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 5 of your chart. Tone: mixed.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 9 from your lagna (fortune, father) and Shani through house 6 (competition, debts). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 9, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 6; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 5:

- Children — what can happen: joy, progress and good news about children; on the difficult side, worry about a child's studies, health or behaviour. What helps: Give them patient time, guide without pressure and consult a doctor or teacher early when something worries you.
- Education and studies — what can happen: good concentration and success in studies and exams; on the difficult side, distraction or results lower than the effort. What helps: Follow a fixed timetable, study in short focused sessions and keep the phone away.

Mangal – Guru: 12/02/2105 to 19/01/2106

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Guru again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 7 and 10 and sits in house 6 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Career and profession (mixed), Wealth and finances (mixed). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 10 from your lagna (career, status and authority) and Shani through house 6 (competition, debts). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 10, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 6; results built by steady work there last longest. Both slow planets meet the houses this sub-period activates, which makes it one of the more eventful stretches of this stage.

Matters of house 6:

- Service and daily work — what can happen: recognition for hard work and service; on the difficult side, heavy workload and tiredness. What helps: Prioritise tasks, delegate where you can and take proper breaks.
- Legal disputes — what can happen: a favourable outcome in a dispute; on the difficult side, a dispute that drags on. What helps: Prefer a settlement, keep all records, and consult a qualified lawyer.

Matters of house 7:

- Marriage prospects — what can happen: good proposals and progress in marriage talks; on the difficult side, delay or confusion in a marriage decision. What helps: Take time to know the person and the family, check compatibility calmly and do not hurry.
- Business partnerships — what can happen: profitable alliances and trustworthy partners; on the difficult side, disagreements or unclear terms with a partner. What helps: Put every term in writing and take legal advice before signing.

Mangal – Shani: 19/01/2106 to 28/02/2107

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Shani again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 8 and 9 and sits in house 10 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Career and profession (mostly favourable), Spiritual life (mostly favourable). The two lords sit in a 6/8 relation in your chart, so the themes of the main period and sub-period can pull against each other.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 11 from your lagna (income, gains) and Shani through house 7 (marriage, partnerships and public dealings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 11, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 7; results built by steady work there last longest.

SAMPLE

Matters of house 10:

- Business and profession — what can happen: business expansion and a better name in the market. To keep it that way: Control costs, keep accounts clean and take expert advice before expanding.
- Boss and people in authority — what can happen: support from bosses and people in authority. To keep it that way: Communicate clearly, deliver on time and avoid public arguments.

Matters of house 8:

- Inheritance and joint money — what can happen: gains from inheritance, insurance or the spouse's family. To keep it that way: Keep wills and papers clear and take legal advice before any settlement.
- Research and hidden matters — what can happen: deep research, insight and success in studying hidden subjects. To keep it that way: Keep a regular routine and avoid extremes or risky practices.

Mangal – Budh: 28/02/2107 to 25/02/2108

The lords of the main period and sub-period are not friendly, so some tension between the two themes is likely; patience and remedies help. Budh again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 1 and 4 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Health and vitality (mostly favourable), Home, property and vehicles (mostly favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 12 from your lagna (expenses, foreign lands) and Shani through house 7 (marriage, partnerships and public dealings). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 12, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 7; results built by steady work there last longest. Guru passes through house 12, which this sub-period itself activates, so its results are supported and easier to use.

Matters of house 12:

- Spiritual growth — what can happen: inner peace, meditation and spiritual progress. To keep it that way: Meditate daily and stay in touch with family and friends.
- Hospitals and hidden worries — what can happen: recovery and release from old worries. To keep it that way: Go for a check-up early and consult a doctor; do not ignore small symptoms.

Matters of house 1:

- Image and reputation — what can happen: recognition and a positive image among people. To keep it that way: Keep your promises, speak politely and avoid showing off.
- Health and energy — what can happen: better energy, stamina and a quicker recovery. To keep it that way: Keep fixed times for sleep and meals, exercise daily and do regular check-ups. See a doctor early for any symptom instead of waiting.

Mangal – Ketu: 25/02/2108 to 23/07/2108

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Ketu again gives the results of its sign and sign lord, and sits in house 11 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Wealth and finances (mixed), Home, property and vehicles (mixed). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 12 from your lagna (expenses, foreign lands) and Shani through house 8 (sudden changes, research). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 12, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 8; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 11:

- Elder brothers and sisters — what can happen: support and good advice from elder siblings; on the difficult side, differences with elder siblings. What helps: Respect them and keep money matters separate from the relationship.
- Fulfilment of wishes — what can happen: long-pending wishes begin to be fulfilled; on the difficult side, wishes that need more patience. What helps: Set realistic goals and move towards them in steps.

Mangal – Shukra: 23/07/2108 to 22/09/2109

The lords of the main period and sub-period are neutral to each other, so results depend mainly on their positions in your chart. Shukra again brings the matters of its own houses: it rules houses 5 and 12 and sits in house 12 of your chart. Tone: mostly favourable. Activates: Travel and foreign connections (mostly favourable), Wealth and finances (mostly favourable). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 1 from your lagna (health, personality and new beginnings) and Shani through house 8 (sudden changes, research). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 1, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 8; results built by steady work there last longest.

Matters of house 12:

- Losses through carelessness — what can happen: the end of an old burden. To keep it that way: Keep valuables safe, check bills and agreements, and do not trust blindly.
- Expenses — what can happen: money spent on comfort, family or good causes. To keep it that way: Keep a budget, avoid impulse buying and maintain a reserve fund.

Matters of house 5:

- Creativity and talents — what can happen: ideas that flow and talents that get noticed. To keep it that way: Practise for a fixed short time every day and finish small pieces.
- Romance — what can happen: warmth and happiness in love. To keep it that way: Be honest, go slowly and do not commit in a hurry.

Mangal – Ravi: 22/09/2109 to 28/01/2110

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Ravi again brings the matters of its own house: it rules house 3 and sits in house 1 of your chart. Tone: testing. Activates: Health and vitality (testing), Career and profession (testing). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 3 from your lagna (courage, siblings) and Shani through house 8 (sudden changes, research). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 3, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 8; results built by steady work there last longest. Guru passes through house 3, which this sub-period itself activates, so its results are supported and easier to use.

Matters of house 1:

- Confidence and personality — what can happen: impatience, ego clashes or feeling unsure of yourself. What helps: Pause before reacting, listen first and take big decisions only after a night of thought.

SAMPLE

- New beginnings — what can happen: starts that are rushed or lack planning. What helps: Plan first, take advice, and begin small so that you can test before going big.

- Short journeys — what can happen: delays or small mishaps while travelling. What helps: Plan ahead, keep documents ready and drive carefully.

Mangal – Chandra: 28/01/2110 to 29/08/2110

The lords of the main period and sub-period are friendly, which helps them work together smoothly. Chandra again brings the matters of its own house: it rules house 2 and sits in house 9 of your chart. Tone: mixed. Activates: Wealth and finances (mixed), Career and profession (mixed). The two lords support each other by position in your chart.

Around the middle of this sub-period Guru moves through house 2 from your lagna (money, family and speech) and Shani through house 8 (sudden changes, research). Guru brings growth, guidance and opportunity to the matters of house 2, while Shani asks for patience, discipline and responsibility in the matters of house 8; results built by steady work there last longest. Guru passes through house 2, which this sub-period itself activates, so its results are supported and easier to use.

Matters of house 9:

- Higher studies — what can happen: admission or success in higher studies, research or courses; on the difficult side, obstacles or changes in higher-study plans. What helps: Apply early and keep a backup option ready.
- Charity and good deeds — what can happen: an opportunity to do meaningful charity that brings blessings; on the difficult side, giving that is misdirected or not appreciated. What helps: Give quietly to genuine causes and never beyond your means.

Matters of house 2:

- Family life — what can happen: harmony, togetherness and support at home; on the difficult side, differences with close relatives over small matters. What helps: Eat together when possible, avoid taunts and settle money matters between relatives in writing.
- Speech and communication — what can happen: words that carry weight and people who listen to you; on the difficult side, sharp words or being misunderstood. What helps: Think before speaking, avoid arguments, and put important things in writing.

- Feed or care for dogs.
- Donate a blanket to the needy.
- Respect children and maternal uncles.
- Wear a thread on the wrist after worship at a Ganesha temple.

Gemstone guide

Gemstones are traditionally worn to strengthen a helpful planet in the chart. A stone should be worn only for a planet that is favourable for your lagna; wearing a stone of an unfavourable planet can, in tradition, increase its difficulties. The Garuda Purana contains a well-known section on testing gems (ratna-pariksha), stressing natural, flawless stones. Always buy a certified natural stone, test it for a few days if possible, and consult an experienced astrologer before wearing.
